Dear Sir,

PUBLICATION OF OFFENSIVE AND REPULSIVE MATERIALS AGAINST MS. AJIBOLA OLUBIYI

We are solicitors to Ms. Ajibola Ayanna Olubiyi of No 3 King George V. Street, Onikan Lagos, hereinafter referred to as Our Client and on whose instruction we write.

It has come to our attention that you published, or caused to be published, offensive material against and certain words defamatory of Our Client.

The said material, which was published in a magazine and also on the internet accessible to and read by the general public, included words which Our Client finds abusive, offensive, defamatory and intended to bring down her reputation before her family, friends, business colleagues and the general public.

These offensive materials were published on your INTERNATIONAL TOP NEWS publication, Volume 1, No 14 of January 23 – February 06, 2012.

Our Client has been inundated with calls and text messages by friends & well-meaning Nigerians who expressed shock and disgust at the publication. Needless to say, Our Client has been devastated by the publication, and this development has greatly affected Our Client's business, image, reputation and state of mind.

Our Client views this Publication as completely inconsistent with her person and totally condemns in the strongest terms the said publication. We wish to reiterate that our client was never contacted by the publishers or any of its affiliates to verify the authenticity of the alleged claims before the malicious and offensive words were published- at which time the publishers would have known fully well the fallacy of such claims. Furthermore, the said publication has not and did not mention or attach our client with any person or name, and is therefore specifically aimed at tarnishing an image Our Client has built over the years through hardwork, dedication and self discipline.

Consequently, you are hereby given 7 days (Seven days), from the date of receipt of this letter, to retract the said publication and tender an unreserved letter of apology to Our Client in her personal capacity, as well as on your magazine and/or a nationally recognized newspaper. If you fail to do so within the prescribed time, you will leave us with no choice but to commence the process of taking appropriate Legal measures against you.

Thank you for your anticipated and expedited action.

Yours Faithfully,

For: AVANTE & SCHMIDT
